

The Society of Gynecologic Oncology of Canada
Cervical Cancer Prevention Advocacy 2025
Application Form

Title of Initiative: _____

Theme: _____

1. Vaccination catchup for individuals who missed their dose during COVID
2. Screening and prevention in underserved populations
3. Screening and prevention in immigrant populations
4. Innovative ideas to reach the World Health Organization goal of cervical cancer elimination.

Name of Principle Applicant: _____

Email: _____

Phone number: _____

Address: _____

Residency Program: _____

Year of Training: _____

Name of OB/GYN Mentor: _____

Email: _____

Name of Program Director: _____

Email: _____

The Society of Gynecologic Oncology of Canada
Cervical Cancer Prevention Advocacy 2025
Application Form

Name(s) of Co-Applicants (up to three):

Name	Year of Training	Email

Checklist:

Proposal (max 2 pages, 12 size font, includes tables and figures):

- What is the rationale of the proposed initiative/idea?
- Who is the target population(s) and how many individuals will be reached?
- Roles of team member(s)
- Expected outcome(s)
- How could this initiative potentially be implemented in other Canadian settings.

☒Timeline and milestones (max 1/2 page, 12 size font)

☒Budget (max 1/2 page, 12 size font)

The Society of Gynecologic Oncology of Canada
Cervical Cancer Prevention Advocacy 2025
Application Form

Signature of Nominated Applicant:

I confirm that I will conduct the project under supervision of my mentor and submit my interim and final reports to GOC. Furthermore, I commit to attending the GOC CPD meeting, April 23-24, 2026 to present the completed project.

.....

Signature of Mentor:

I confirm that I have reviewed the proposal and will support this initiative in the implementation and budget management

.....

Signature of Residency Program Director:

I confirm that the resident will have protected time to attend the GOC CPD Meeting, April 23-24, 2026 to present the results of this initiative.

.....

Please submit full application to annie.leung@mcgill.ca by April 30, 2025 in a single pdf.

